

ESCRITA
Á PEÇA

wikilivros

Escrita à Peça

A young adult struggling with his life decides to start writing by demand, that is, he accepts to write speeches for politics, love letters, academic papers and so on. He is eventually very successful in his new profession and gets to meet the most weird people.

Geographically, the action takes place in Lisbon, a magic and romantic city, where our hero finds love, anger and sorrow. This book, is ultimately, about all the challenges that educated young adults are facing today and the typical - or not - options they make, in order to thrive in life.

Clique aqui para obter este livro